1. Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters

At its organizational session for 2007, the Council approved the provisional agenda for its substantive session (Council decision 2007/209).

At its organizational session for 2007, the Council decided to further defer its consideration of the draft annex on the privileges and immunities of the specialized agencies with respect to the World Tourism Organization to its substantive session of 2007 (Council decision 2007/205).

Documentation

Note by the Secretary-General entitled "Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the Specialized Agencies: draft annex relating to the World Tourism Organization" (E/2006/70)

A. High-level segment

In accordance with General Assembly resolution 48/162, the Council will devote the first morning of the high-level segment to a high-level policy dialogue with the executive heads of international trade and finance institutions on key issues of the global economy.

2. (a) Thematic discussion

Strengthening efforts at all levels to promote pro-poor sustained economic growth, including through equitable macroeconomic policies;

(b) Annual ministerial review

Strengthening efforts to eradicate poverty and hunger, including through the global partnership for development.

The Council will have before it the report of the Secretary-General on strengthening efforts at all levels to promote pro-poor sustained economic growth, including through equitable macroeconomic policies for the thematic discussion at the 2007 substantive session (Council decision 2007/206). The report will incorporate relevant inputs from a number of United Nations organizations with the aim of providing conceptual and policy background for deliberations on the theme.

The Council will also have before it the report of the Secretary-General on strengthening efforts to eradicate poverty and hunger, including through the global partnership for development for the annual ministerial review (Council decision 2007/207), in pursuance of paragraph 155 of the 2005 World Summit Outcome (General Assembly resolution 60/1) and paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 61/16 on strengthening of the Economic and Social Council. The report will incorporate inputs from a number of relevant United Nations organizations and draw upon the outcome of the special preparatory round-table meeting of the Council to be held on 2 April 2007. The report will also provide policy recommendations for consideration by the Council.

The Council will also have before it the World Economic and Social Survey 2007, prepared pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 118 (II) and 52/180 and Council resolution 1983/50, and the relevant part of the report of the Committee for Development Policy on its ninth session (Council resolution 2006/1).

The Council will have before it the relevant part of the report of the Secretary-General on regional cooperation (Council decision 2004/323).

In paragraph 155 of the 2005 World Summit Outcome, the Council was mandated to hold a biennial high-level Development Cooperation Forum to review trends in international development cooperation. In paragraph 5 of its resolution 61/16, the General Assembly further requested the Council to consider launching the Forum during the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2007 and thereafter meeting in New York, starting in 2008.

B. Operational activities of the United Nations for international development cooperation segment

3. Operational activities of the United Nations for international development cooperation

(a) Follow-up to policy recommendations of the General Assembly and the Council

The General Assembly, in paragraph 103 of its resolution 59/250, requested the Secretary-General to submit to it at its sixty-second session, through the Council, a comprehensive analysis of implementation of the resolution in the context of the triennial policy review and to make appropriate recommendations.

The Council, at its substantive session of 2006, in paragraph 51 of its resolution 2006/14, requested the Secretary-General to focus the analysis of the triennial comprehensive policy review of 2007, within the context of the implementation of the internationally agreed development goals, including the Millennium Development Goals.

The General Assembly, in paragraph 22 of its resolution 59/250, requested the Secretary-General to improve the annual statistical compendium to the operational activities segment of the Council by adding a multi-year perspective, fully incorporating available information and statistics.

At its substantive session of 2006, the Council requested the Secretary-General, in order to enhance understanding of funding trends in the United Nations development system and humanitarian field, to further refine comprehensive statistical data on operational activities for development of the United Nations system contained in his annual report, with a view to promoting a concerted effort by entities of the United system to standardize data and statistical practices that reflect funding for operational activities for development, including a better distinction between funding for humanitarian assistance and for long-term development cooperation channelled through the funds, programmes and specialized agencies of the United Nations system and the United Nations Secretariat, in collaboration with organizations repository of relevant information and statistics, as appropriate (Council resolution 2006/14, para. 11).

At its substantive session of 1998, the Council invited the Secretary-General to arrange for the submission by the executive heads of the United Nations funds and programmes, in consultation with the United Nations Development Group, to the Council at its annual substantive session, of a concise consolidated list of issues that are central to the improved coordination of operational activities and on which the funds and programmes seek consideration by and guidance from the Council, in particular in regard to the triennial policy review, and to include in the list recommendations whenever possible (Council resolution 1998/27, para. 4).

(b) Reports of the Executive Boards of the United Nations Development Programme/United Nations Population Fund, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Food Programme

The Council will also have before it the annual reports of the Executive Boards of the United Nations Development Programme/United Nations Population Fund, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Food Programme.

The Council requested the funds and programmes, through their executive boards, to include in their annual reports to the Council: (a) a section outlining measures taken in the implementation of the provisions of the triennial policy review of operational activities; and (b) a section on the activities and measures undertaken within the designated theme of the high-level meeting of the operational activities segment (Council resolution 1994/33).

The reports include a thorough analysis of problems encountered and lessons learned, with emphasis on issues arising from the implementation of the Secretary-General's reform programme, the triennial comprehensive policy review and the follow-up to international conferences, so as to allow the Council to fulfil its coordinating role (General Assembly resolutions 48/162 and 53/192 and Council resolution 1995/51).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly invited the executive boards and governing bodies of the funds, programmes and the specialized agencies to assess regularly the progress achieved in the area of simplification and harmonization of rules and procedures and requested the funds and programmes to provide, in their annual reports to the Council, specific information on the progress achieved in that area (General Assembly resolution 59/250, paras. 36, 38 and 39).

D. Humanitarian affairs segment

5. Special economic, humanitarian and disaster relief assistance

At its organizational session for 2007, the Council decided: (a) that the theme of the humanitarian affairs segment of its substantive session of 2007 would be "Strengthening of the coordination of United Nations humanitarian assistance through enhancing the effectiveness of needs-based humanitarian assistance"; and (b) that it would convene two panels, the topics of which would be: (i) "The use of military assets in natural disaster relief"; (ii) "Needs-based humanitarian financing, including the Central Emergency Response Fund" (Council decision 2007/211).

At its sixty-first session, the General Assembly:

- In its resolution 61/132, requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-second session on strengthening emergency relief, rehabilitation, reconstruction and prevention in the aftermath of the Indian Ocean tsunami disaster through the Council at its substantive session of 2007.
- In its resolution 61/134, requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-second session, through the Council at its substantive session of 2007, on progress made in strengthening the coordination of emergency humanitarian assistance of the United Nations (see also Council resolution 2006/5).
- Also in its resolution 61/134, requested the Secretary-General to submit a report to the Assembly through the Council on the detailed use of the Central Emergency Response Fund.

In accordance with Council resolution 1983/46, the Secretary-General orally apprises the Council annually on the status of the assistance to the drought-stricken areas of Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, the Sudan and Uganda.
